
Module 4: The Nature of Leading Change: What Lies Beneath Counts

Date: Thursday, March 31, 2011
Location: Parry Sound, Bobby Orr Community Centre, 7 Mary Street
Time: 9:00 am to 12:30 pm (Continental Breakfast @ 8:30 am)
Facilitator: Dr. Linda Pickard, Pickard & Laws (lpickard@pickardlaws.com; Cell: 416 505-2557)

Agenda

Music- Team 7 – Promiscuous Puppies

Getting Started

- What's been happening?
- Review: Highlights from and application of Module 3
- The Agenda: Goals and activities
- Special Activity (facilitated by Team 1 – ADD)

Insights on Leadership from the Readings, Media and Your Experiences

- The meaning and application of the ideas and stories (facilitated by Team 2 – Crap Adds Up)

Leading Change When the Situation is “Swampy”

- Cases from Parry Sound and Muskoka: Applying positive deviance techniques to finding solutions.
- What other “adaptive leadership” techniques are helpful?

Wrap Up

- Preparing for Module Five: Teamwork & Teaming --- Artful Decision Making
- Inspiration: Team 7 – Promiscuous Puppies
- Reflections and Feedback
- Book Raffle