
Module 7: Strategy Live – Agenda

- Date: September 26, 2008
Location: To be determined
Time: 8:00 am to 4:30 pm
Purpose: To better understand the challenges and proven methods for formulating and executing strategy.
Goals: See Module outline
Guest Speakers: Lindsey George, Assistant Clinical Professor, McMaster University & Medical Director, Hamilton Program for Assertive Community Treatment (lgeorge@stjosham.on.ca) and Dale Carl, Director of Graduate Students and Associate Director of International Relations, Ted Rogers School of Management, Ryerson University (dcarl@ryerson.ca)

Agenda

Continental Breakfast (8:00 am)

Music: Team 1— Emerging 1ders

Transfer In

- Welcome to guests
- Agenda/logistics
- Power Talking

Special Activity (Team 3---Bare Necessities)

Q & A with Senior Management

Reflections on Readings: Team 5—ACME Inc.

Grassroots and Grasstops Organizing: Engaging the Community in Defining and Making Change (L. George)

Lunch

Teamwork and Strategy Under Exceptional Change Circumstances (D. Carl)

- Introducing a real case of life and death: Canadians and a Canadian Embassy in Iraq
- What would you do? An opportunity to test your team work, creativity, strategy-making and adaptive leadership skills
- Comparing your strategies with the real story of survival, versatility and courage

Fit Break: Team 2—The Trans4mers

Teamwork and Strategy Under Exceptional Change Circumstances, continued (D. Carl)

- The implications: a perspective on cross-cultural transformational/charismatic leadership
- How does this relate and how can the lessons learned be applied to Niagara?

Preparing for “Bringing It Home” Module: Demonstrating Creatively Your Leadership Journey in the Program

Team Time

Wrap-Up (4:30 pm)